TERMINOLOGY EXPLAINED

When creating your dream bathroom you may be inundated with unfamiliar terminology. Our jargon buster is designed to aid your understanding of the products available to you and their benefits.

Thermostatic

Thermostatic refers to a function that establishes and maintains a desired temperature automatically. Usually referring to VADO's range of shower mixing valves; thermostatic describes the process of blending hot water with cold water to ensure safe shower and bath temperatures. This process prevents scalding from sudden pressure fluctuations and cold-water isolation.

Outlet

An outlet is the name given to a component which allows different ways for water to be delivered for cleansing. This may apply to specific products such as shower heads, handsets or bath spouts.

Diverter

A diverter is a component that is used to change or redirect the flow of water from one outlet to another. Often found within a bath shower mixer, the diverter can redirect the flow of water to a shower head instead of the bath spout. A compact and versatile solution for both taps and showers.

Integrated

Multiple products that have been combined to create one solution with a minimalist aesthetic that are easy to fit and simple to use.

Brassware

Brassware is the collective term given to taps, showers and accessories.

1. QUOTATION AND ACCEPTANCE

- (a) All quotations are given and all orders are accepted on these terms which shall apply to the exclusion of and shall override any other terms stipulated or referred to by the purchaser whether in its order or any other document, or in any negotiations or communication or course of dealing established between the Company and the purchaser;
- (b) No modification or amendment of these terms or addition thereto shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by a director of the Company.

2. DESCRIPTION OF AND STATEMENTS AS TO GOODS

- (a) Save where the goods are stated to be sold as complying with a recognised trade or industry standard, all descriptions, specifications, drawings and particulars of weights and dimensions submitted by the Company or otherwise contained in the Company's catalogues, brochures, price lists, quotations and publicity materials are approximate only and the Company shall not be liable for their accuracy unless they are expressly incorporated into the contract in writing;
- (b) These terms represent the entire agreement between the Company and the purchaser relating to the goods and such terms supersede and the purchaser shall not place any reliance upon any statements, recommendations and advice whether oral or in writing given (whether before or after the acceptance by the Company of the purchaser's order) by the Company, its servants or agents as to any matter relating to the goods save where such statement, recommendations or advice is given in writing and signed by a director of the Company in response to a specific written request from the purchaser before or at the time of the Company's acceptance of the order.

3. PRICES

- (d) Any default in payment of an invoice or an instalment payment on an invoice on the due date shall render the entire balance outstanding on all invoices from the Company to the purchaser immediately payable in full without demand being made notwithstanding any contrary provisions as to terms of payment in any one or all invoices;
- (e) If the purchaser fails to give all instructions reasonably required by the Company and all necessary document, licences, consents and authorities for forwarding the goods or is unable to accept delivery of the goods at the time when the goods are due and ready for despatch or delivery or shall otherwise cause or request delay, the purchaser shall pay to the Company all costs and expenses, including storage and insurance charges incurred or arising from such delay during which, at the Company's absolute discretion if its storage facilities permit, the goods will be stored at the purchaser's sole risk. This provision shall be in addition to and not in substitution for any other payment or damages for which the purchaser may be liable in respect of his failure to take delivery at the appropriate date;
- (f) The purchaser shall not be entitled to make any deduction from the price of goods which have been delivered to the purchaser in respect of any set off or counterclaim unless both the validity and the amount thereof have been expressly admitted in writing by the Company and such admission is signed by a director of the Company;
- (g) In the absence of any specific appropriation by the purchaser, the Company shall have the right to appropriate any payment made by the purchaser towards the satisfaction of any invoice outstanding from time to time as the Company shall in its absolute discretion think fit.
